(b) The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

(c) Without prejudice to Article 7 hereof, if a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the date appointed for the payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay annual interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding two percentage points over the Central Bank of Malta minimum discount rate as the directors may determine, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

(d) Without prejudice to Article 7 hereof, any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium shall for the purposes of these regulations be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

(e) The directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

(f) The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding two percentage points over the Central Bank of Malta minimum discount rate, as may be agreed upon between the directors and the members paying such sum in advance.

5. TRANSFER OF SHARES

(a) If any member wishes to transfer his shares or any of them (hereinafter referred to as the transferor), he shall inform the directors by notice in writing (hereinafter referred to as the transfer notice) specifying the number of shares to be transferred, the name of the proposed transferee being a third party (which proposed transferee shall only be invoked should the remaining existing members refuse or be unable to purchase his shares at a fair price under the provisions of Clause 5 (c) below and PROVIDED THAT the majority of the original subscribers to the Memorandum pass a resolution approving such transferee), and his estimated valuation of each share. A part of a share may not form the object of a transfer.

It is hereby understood that for the purposes of the resolution approving the transferee referred to here-above in this sub-article, the majority required to pass such resolution shall be determined by a show of hands such that each original subscriber to the Memorandum shall be deemed to be entitled to one (1) vote irrespective of the number of shares held by such subscriber in the Company, PROVIDED THAT in the event of equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(b) The receipt by the directors of a transfer notice shall constitute an authority to offer for sale the shares specified therein at a fair valuation to be ascertained as follows:

- i) the transferor's estimated valuation, if considered by the directors to be a fair one;
- ii) at a value placed on them by the auditors where the transferor's valuation is not considered by the directors to be a fair one;
- iii) at a valuation placed on them by any other person whom the directors, with the consent in writing of the transferor, shall appoint where for any reason the auditors shall not make the said valuation.

(c) When a fair value of the shares has been determined in the manner prescribed in Clause 5 (b), the directors shall by notice in writing inform the transferor and shall cause a notice to be sent to every remaining existing member of the Company stating the number and the fair value of the shares for sale and inviting them to state, in writing within thirty (30) days, what number of shares, if any, they are willing to purchase.

On the expiration of the said thirty (30) days, the directors shall first allocate the said shares to the remaining existing members willing to purchase irrespective of the number of shares held by such member. If the requests for shares exceed the number for sale, the directors shall apportion the shares in accordance with such purchasing members' existing shareholdings.

PROVIDED THAT any member may transfer all or any of his shares directly to another existing member of his choice, who accepts to purchase the same, irrespective of the number of shares held by such member, without the need to offer such shares to the other remaining existing members as would otherwise be required as per the provisions of this sub-clause outlined above.

(d) The transferor shall complete and execute transfers of the said shares in accordance with the allocation by the directors and shall surrender to the Company his share certificate. The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the shares until the name of the purchasing member is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.

(e) If the directors shall be unable, within two (2) months of receipt of the notice referred to in Clause 5 (a), to find the purchaser for all or any of the shares from amongst the remaining existing members, the transferor shall be entitled to sell the shares to the proposed transferee named in the transfer notice, at the price specified therein, and this for a period of six months commencing from the end of the two months from the notice referred to under Clause 5 (a), so however PROVIDED THAT the majority of the original subscribers to the Memorandum have passed a resolution approving such transferee named in the transfer notice.

(f) Notwithstanding the regulations set out above, no restriction on the transfer or transmission of shares shall apply where such transfers take place whether inter vivos or causa mortis to a lineal descendant or the wife, husband, widow or widower of a member of the Company.

6. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

Shares are transferable on death of a shareholder to his heirs according to any will or the law. Until such time as the rightful heir is established the estate of the deceased member will be deemed to be the holder of the shares.

If at any time there are not in Malta sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum any Director or any two members of the company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors.

10. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

(a) Notice of any general meeting shall be given to all members of the Company, to all Directors, and to the Secretary if any, of the Company.

(b) A general meeting of the Company shall be called by fourteen days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business the general nature of that business, and shall be given, in the manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, to such persons as are, by the Act and under the regulations of the Company entitled to receive such notices from the Company. Provided that a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this regulation, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat.

(c) The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

(f) At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands.

A declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution:

Provided that where a resolution requires a particular majority in value, the resolution shall not be deemed to have been carried on a show of hands by the required majority unless there be present at the meeting, whether in person or by proxy, a number of members holding in the aggregate the required majority as aforesaid.

(g) In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
